Hi Jim, great to hear from you. I think you are right about those challenges for Coursera and the massive online learning model in general. In that sense I can see how Western Governors University can be more effective—or at least results in a higher completion rate—as it charges a nominal, but not insignificant amount, to ensure the student is committed.

I for one think this is a great change, and a brilliant post. Absolutely, less time delightedly exploring still more abstruse mistake-theory-legible problems (although these are fun and the theory that total unity is possible feels good) in favor of more time spent on projects such as, "which candidates are really fighting for the people vs. just astroturfed skills" ... hear hear!
